FreePrix George-V The Prix George-V is a Group 3 flat horse race in France open to thoroughbred horses aged three years or older. It is run at Longchamp over a distance of 2,400 metres (about 1½ miles), and it is scheduled to take place each year in September. History The event is named after George V, who was King of the United Kingdom and France from 1910 to 1936. The race was established in 1963, and initially held under the title Prix de Paris. It was given its present name in 1968. The

Prix de Cabourg and Prix de Saint-Alary were established in the same year as the Prix George-V, 6d1f23a050
